They shall not labor in vain. Isaiah 65:21, 22

Amen and amen.

We must have Christ the Son of God to have eternal life.

(1 John 5:11-12) And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. (12) He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God, does not have life.

(Romans 6:22) But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.

(John 3:16) For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

(James 1:12) Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

(John 14:2) In my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

When we get to heaven, the greatest joy will be to see Jesus face to face!

(Revelation 22:3-4) And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him (4) They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads.

(Matthew 5:8) Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

(Hebrews 12:14) Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord.

(1 Corinthians 13:12) For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

It is impossible to comprehend the wonders that are in store for us in heaven.

(Revelation 21:1) Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea.

(1 Corinthians 2:9) But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."

We shall plant vineyards, build houses and nothing will destroy life there will be everlasting joy.

(Isaiah 65:21-23) They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. (22) They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people, and My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. (23) They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth children for trouble; for they shall be the descendants of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

(Isaiah 65:25) The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox, and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says the Lord.

(Isaiah 35:10) And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

(Psalm 72:8) He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.

The holy city of God has twelve foundations and 1500 miles square with walls 216 feet high.

(Revelation 21:16-17) The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. (17) Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

(Revelation 22:1) And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

(Revelation 22:2) In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

(Revelation 21:19-20) The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, (20) the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

(Revelation 21:21) The twelve gates were twelve pearls; each individual gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

We will not need the sun to shine for Christ will be our light.

(Revelation 21:23-24) The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. (24) And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light,...

(Isaiah 60:19-20) The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you; but the Lord will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory. (20) Your sun shall no longer go down, nor shall your moon withdraw itself; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.

(Revelation 21:4) And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.

(Revelation 22:3) See above.

(1 Corinthians 13:12) See above.

(Isaiah 66:22-23) "For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make shall remain before Me, says the Lord, so shall your descendants and your name remain." (23) And it shall come to pass that from one New Moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, says the Lord.

We shall sit with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

(Matthew 8:11) And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

(Nahum 1:9) What do you conspire against the Lord? He will make an utter end of it. Affliction will not rise up a second time.
